

his situation possibly prevailed as to the participating nations.

The bill will be taken up to-morrow, and while the disbursement item is not expected to be reached before Thursday at the earliest, Mr. Kelley, who is the author of the bill, will explain at length the nature of the request and give his reasons for the proposed step.

Approving the committee action, Representative Byrnes, of South Carolina, making a statement of the subcommittee's action to-day that, while the actual cost next year would reach $23,000,000, the budget of the British navy this year, including the colonies, was $33,000,000.

"The figures show the necessity," said Mr. Byrnes, "for the provision requesting the President to call another conference for the limitation of naval armament not included in the recent conference. That conference has since been held, but the character of the naval competition, without reducing to any appreciable extent the cost. Unless there is an agreement covering all fighting ships the United States should maintain a fleet of the same size as the navy units permitted by the treaty, and especially of light cruisers, in order to maintain the relative fighting efficiency of our fleet."

When the naval bill, with its disbursement item, was prepared by Mr. Kelley's subcommittee, it was presented to the full appropriations committee of thirty-five members it was approved without a word of discussion on that point.

League Minorities Plan May Be Applied in Turkey

Fashioning Protective Scheme Already in Use Satisfies the Moslems

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Allied plans for protecting minorities in Turkey are being worked out through the League of Nations for minority protection in states stretching from the Baltic to the Black Sea, according to detailed information which reached here to-day from unofficial channels.

The detailed scheme presented at a session by Lord Curzon and upon which the conference is deadlocked, it is indicated, was framed to meet the needs of the government of Turkey, which is the only one of the states in the area which is not a member of the League of Nations.

The conference is deadlocked, it is indicated, was framed to meet the needs of the government of Turkey, which is the only one of the states in the area which is not a member of the League of Nations.

The conference is deadlocked, it is indicated, was framed to meet the needs of the government of Turkey, which is the only one of the states in the area which is not a member of the League of Nations.

The conference is deadlocked, it is indicated, was framed to meet the needs of the government of Turkey, which is the only one of the states in the area which is not a member of the League of Nations.

Britain Assails Allies, Delay on Naval Pacts

Admiralty Hears U. S. Is Planning Greatest Fleet By Building More Light Ships

LONDON, Dec. 13 (By The Associated Press).—Prime Minister Bonar Law told the House of Commons to-day that Great Britain could not afford to delay without grave disadvantage the completion of the naval pact which the Washington naval treaty by two of the signatory powers, France and Italy.

Lieutenant Colonel Amery, First Lord of the Admiralty, answering a question, said his attention had been called to a report published in the newspapers that the United States proposed to build the most powerful navy in the world by constructing smaller ships than those specified in the Washington treaty.

The Admiralty chief said no restriction in regard to the number of war vessels they might build under Articles I and II of the treaty. He added that the Admiralty could be relied upon to scrutinize carefully the building programs of the other powers, with a view to safeguarding Britain's naval position.

Are Killed and Two Hurt in Auto Crashes

Woman's Car Crushed Against Truck and Boy Run Over

Mrs. Thomas Rooney, forty-five years old, of Clifton, N. J., was killed last night when the automobile in which she was riding and which was piled high with Christmas packages she had purchased, was struck by an Erie Railroad express train at the Kips Avenue crossing, Clifton.

The car was crushed and Mrs. Rooney died instantly.

Three automobile accidents in the Bronx last night killed a man and a boy and injured two already crippled children.

Harry Moskowitz, fifty years old, of 635 First Avenue, was crushed against the radiator of the truck on which he was working when another truck backed into him.

An automobile, owned and driven by Meyer Isakov, of 1529 Rome Avenue, Bronx, knocked down Charles Bloom, six years old, of 2422 Creston Avenue, when he ran from the sidewalk in front of the car. The boy died in Fordham Hospital.

Elese Delgrosso, sixteen years old, of 178 East 187th Street, and John McJorjy, twelve, of 311 Bonner Place, were hurt when a large crowd of boys used to carry crippled children to a school, overturned in avoiding a collision at 169th Street and Teller Avenue. Their injuries are not serious.

Parliamentary Leader Returns To Commons for Portsmouth

PORTSMOUTH, England, Dec. 13.—Lieutenant Colonel Leslie Orme Wilson, chief government whip, who was defeated in the general Parliamentary election as a member of the House of Commons for Reading, has been elected for Portsmouth South. Colonel Wilson received 14,301 votes, as against 7,434 cast for the Independent Liberal candidate, Mr. Thomas.

After the defeat of Colonel Wilson in the general election the sitting member for Portsmouth South resigned so that Colonel Wilson might make a contest for his seat.

Fruct Importation Opposed. Members of the Merchants' Association decided yesterday to oppose the importation of fruit from the Department of Agriculture on December 19 the importation of fruit and vegetables, because of the danger of bringing in the Mediterranean and other fruit flies, enough of which are said to be in the fruit from Italy and in the pockets of tourists to endanger the local fruit industry.

'Tiger' Departs, Confident U. S. Will Aid France

Sails for Home Amid Cries of 'Vive Clemenceau' and President's World Parley Plan to Cheer Him

Wilson Wires Farewell

'My Ghost Will Return.' He Laughingly Remarks as Friends Say Au Revoir

By Boyden Sparkes

The cries of "Vive La France" and "Vive Clemenceau" that echoed in the ears of the old man who sailed for home yesterday aboard the French liner Paris were not his only excuse for believing that his self-imposed mission to the United States had been successful—for believing that the United States is going to help restore order in stormy Europe.

There was a state luncheon at the White House a week ago to-day at which the "Tiger" talked with President Harding and Secretary Hughes. There was another luncheon the other day at which he talked with Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations.

It was in these conversations that this visitor, who came to learn about the situation in Europe, gathered the information for which he left his quiet home by the sea in the Vendée. He came here to tell America she left Europe too soon, left France "in the lurch." Therefore, he said, he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Too often has the old world policy of "letting the boys fight" been a source of trouble to the United States, he said. He said he was not speaking of the cheers that he had received from crowds in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

Laborites Riot in Commons Demanding Help for Jobless

140 Members Defy Speaker and Invite Him to Expel Them During Filibuster; Threaten to Use Force if Government Refuses Aid

By Arthur S. Draper

Special Cable to The Tribune. Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune Inc. LONDON, Dec. 13.—Criticism of the government's unemployment policy precipitated a scene bordering on riot in the House of Commons this afternoon, after a night-long filibuster by Labor members to prevent adjournment until active relief measures are taken.

A vitriolic exchange of epithets between Right and Left wings culminated in the threat shouted by the extreme radical Kirkwood, member from Clyde, that other methods to ameliorate the situation would be invoked if the constitutional means failed.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

The Labor members, particularly those from Scotland, have been convinced for some time that the Bonar Law government has not done enough to relieve the unemployment crisis. The Premier's refusal to see the committee of unemployed, which marched to London to appeal for relief, fanned the long smoldering resentment of the opposition.

New Cuno Note Is Expected to Give Guaranty

Chancellor Opens Fight for Industrial Leaders' Backing for German Loan to Cover French Payments

Plans to Outwit Stinnes

Mark Holds Own in Spite of Allies' Rejection of Berlin's Proposals

By Joseph Shaplen

By Wire to The Tribune. Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune Inc. BERLIN, Dec. 13.—The German government to-day began working out the new reparations proposals which it will present to the Allied Premier when they convene in Paris January 2.

These proposals, which are being worked out in conjunction with leading representatives of German industry, will differ from the London proposals in that they will be couched in more concrete terms, particularly as regards the guarantee, which according to Chancellor Cuno's original project, is to be given by German industry for an increase to cover payments to France.

This time it is expected Cuno will succeed in obtaining definite action by the industrial leaders showing their willingness to co-operate in the German financial settlement and if necessary make sacrifices to further an agreement.

Chancellor Cuno is determined to carry to a finish his fight against Herr Stinnes, to rid the government of what he terms a conspiracy for industrial control of its policies. In this he has the support of the powerful industrialists who are members of the National Association of German Industry.

The association to-day formally announced the "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung's" statement, repudiating Germany's proposals to the conference, which is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" is Stinnes' chief masterpiece. The association's opinion, and that it is ready to co-operate in every way to carry out the proposals made by the government.

Britain Takes Up Woman Writer's Arrest by Reds

Sufferings, Laid to American Reporter's False Charge, Are Related

From The Tribune's European Bureau. Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune Inc. LONDON, Dec. 13.—The British Foreign Office this afternoon took up the case of Mrs. Stan Harding, English writer, who was detained for some months in Russia on charges of espionage.

Ronald McKell, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, received a deputation including several prominent journalists and others interested in the case. Mrs. Harding, who was acting as correspondent for a New York paper, has charged that she was imprisoned by the Soviet government as the result of a false accusation brought by Miss Marguerite Harrison, an American newspaper woman.

Mrs. Harding was present to state her case. McKell said he accepted her version of the story and expressed deep sympathy for her terrible sufferings in the Moscow prison. No action was taken, however.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and representatives of the Institute of Journalists and the National Union of Journalists.

The deputation, which was introduced by T. P. O'Connor, editor of the famous "T. P.'s Weekly," included Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Riddell, Lady Burnham, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Wedgwood Benn and